said Johnny.
"He does," said mamma. Johany opened his eyes wide. "Does!"

he cried. "Oh, yes, said mamma-"he speaks in still, small voice."

"I never heard him." said the little boy "coes it sound like wind?"

"That's because you don't hearken," said mamma. God's voice does not sound like wind, it speaks in your heart, and so sofily. that you must hearken in order to hear it

"When you are naughty, it says, 'Don't, don't, Johany, pray don't.' When you are right, it says, 'It is sweet to be God's child. God's children love to do right." "I want it to say that to me," said Johnny;

For several days, Johnny behaved as if he was hearkening to that little voice, and as if it whispered pleasant words to him. He tried to do right, and seemed a very happy child. One day wh n he took his marbles out of his pocket, his mo her observed a hand-ome blue glass one. "Where did you get that, Johnny?" sh said : "it is a beauty."

He tried to snatch it out of her hand .-His mother, as you may think, was much surprised. She looked at him, and he hung down his head. Then she began to be afraid there was something wrong; before, she did not; and she asked again-"Where did you get this marble, Johnny?"

The little boy made no answer. She did not ask him again, but went away, At night, Johnny climed into his mother's lap, and laying his head on her shoulder, said, in a low, sorrowful tone-"I took that glass marble, mamma."

Headaches maybe classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the procurser of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rhematism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of diseases of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic diseases constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently atdisorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Assemia and piethera are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently somul-health and prestrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other lastances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or accretity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, ever one or

MY THEORY AND THEATMENT

Are new and different from any one in the United States, and I challenge any one to produce the same success that I have net with in freating Chronic Diseases. My theory is based upon the chemical operations of the body, believing diseases to depend upon a disproportional condition of the fluids of the body, whereby the salids become indicable by analysing the secretous, blood, &c., of the body, and finding out what is deficient or in excess and supplying to the system what is wanting. I am enabled to core often by a small amount of medicines for long years to no effect.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrafulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever he its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending " from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the langs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, cruptions or sares. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that seroin our constitutions not only suffer from scrafulous complaints, but they have for less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; conse-quently vait numbers period by disorders which although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatel by this taint in the system. Most of the consummion which dra canates the luman family has its origin our city in this serolatour communition; and many destructive disease of the livet, kidneys, brain, and, indust, of all the organ, brise from or are appropriated by the same cause.

One number of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this backing inforeign, and their bealth is underndood by To clean a it from the system we must renove to the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigurate it by healthy fond and exercise. buch a medicine we supply in
